STAT

This is in response to your letter of 29 April 1986 to Mr. William Casey regarding your 7 April 1986 request for information on the Rote Kapelle, to which we assigned our Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) reference number F86-0435. Your most recent letter was also referred to this office for reply.

As we advised you in our letter of 22 April 1986, the CIA has turned over almost all of the OSS files to the National Archives for retention. We are maintaining only staff personnel and finance files; all of the operational files -- which would be of interest to you -- are now available at the location we gave you in our previous letter.

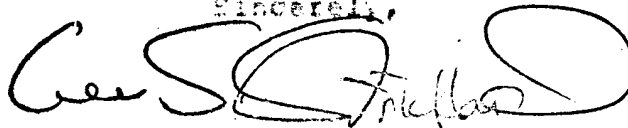

The OSS records are in the custody of:

Modern Military Branch
Military Archives Division
National Archives and Records Administration
Room 13N, Archives Building
7th and Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20408

We regret any misunderstanding that our previous letter may have caused. Your access to the OSS files should be greatly improved by this transfer since you can now do the research yourself and need not rely on third party searches.

Thank you again for your interest.

Sincerely,

Lee S. Strickland
Information and Privacy Coordinator

Mr. William Casey
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Director Casey:

I repeat my request to have access to the file
The Rote Kapelle to research the materials not published in the book THE ROTE KAPELLE, as requested in my letter of April 7, current year.

The letters of Lee S. Strickland are perfunctory answers of your office for the stupid ones, not for the scholars and the cognoscenti.

Sincerely yours,

ILLEGIB

Dr. Ivo Omrcanin

STAT

Dear Dr. Omrcanin:

This is further to our letter of 18 April 1986 regarding your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for information on the World War II organization "The Rote Kapelle" (F86-0436).

For several years, we have been systematically reviewing all of our OSS holdings, with a view to turning as much as possible over to the National Archives in Washington, DC for permanent retention. We have already handed over more than seventeen hundred cubic feet of records, and we hope to be able to complete the review in 1986. Therefore you should contact the Archives first, since the records you want probably will have been accessioned to Archives before your request can be processed by CIA. Those portions of OSS records held by Archives, but withheld from the public because they still contain classified material, are subject to the mandatory review provisions of Executive Order 12356. Major portions of this material were obtained from foreign government sources and retain their classification despite their age.

The OSS records will be in the custody of:

Modern Military Branch
Military Archives Division
National Archives and Records Administration
Room 13W, Archives Building
7th and Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20408

We hope that the above is of some assistance to you and thank you for your interest.

Sincerely,

STAT
